

The Jean-Marc Fischer Prize

Edition 2019-2020

Through the Jean-Marc Fischer Prize, the Doctor Jean-Marc Fischer Foundation encourages reflection in the field of human, social and theological sciences.

Three prizes will be awarded in this fourth contest, which welcomes submissions in French and English from around the world.

Theme : « Care and Spirituality »

Conditions for participation

Any professional in the field of health (doctor, psychologist, nurse, chaplain, etc.) can submit a dossier on the theme "Care and Spirituality", as described below.

Entering the Contest

Individuals wishing to enter the contest are requested to send to the Jean-Marc Fischer Foundation an application package specifying the price category to which the work is submitted. It should contain the following documents:

- An original and unpublished work;
- An application form including a brief description of the work (see document on the website <http://fondationdocteurjmf.ch/>);
- A Curriculum Vitae.
- A list of publications.

This year, the contest will be announced internationally

Three prizes will be awarded :

- 1) A Scientific Prize - CHF 3000.-, to reward a scientific work (clinical study, review of scientific literature) on the theme of the contest.
- 2) A Special Jury Prize - CHF 2000.-, to reward a more personal work (dissertation, case study, reflection paper...) on the same theme.
- 3) A « Culture, Care and Spirituality » Prize - CHF 2000.-, to reward a scientific work or a reflexion paper on the theme of the contest associated with a cultural dimension (eg. a study on a specific culture, a cross-cultural comparison, or a culture-specific treatment).

If necessary, the Jury will decide to which category the work is assigned.

The work may have been recently published. Diploma theses or dissertations are accepted in a condensed version according to conditions described above.

The work will be submitted in Word and PDF versions,

It will include (title, abstract and bibliographic references included)

A maximum of 42,000 characters (incl. spaces), with a maximum of 2,500 signs per page (spaces included), line spacing 1.5.

⇒ Bigger works will be returned .

A first page will indicate the title, the name (s) of the author (s), the number of words and signs, mention of possible funding and conflicts of interest.

In the second page, a summary of 150 words will detail the main elements of the work. If necessary, a sound / image file can be attached to the written document to illustrate the dissertation.

Works that do not match these characteristics will be returned.

The authors of the works authorize the Doctor Jean-Marc Fischer Foundation to publish these works on its website.

The deadline for submission of applications is 31 March 2020.

The Prize will be awarded during the year 2020 by an ad hoc scientific committee.

This committee, chaired by Professor Ph. Huguelet, is composed of Doctor S. Mohr and Professors G. Bondolfi, N. Duruz and F. Ferrero.

RULES OF THE CONTEST

1. Purpose and Definition of the Jean-Marc Fischer Prize

1.1 The award of a prize was decided by the Doctor Jean-Marc Fischer Foundation, following the death of Dr. Fischer, a Genevan psychiatrist, who was interested in the spirituality of his patients through the transpersonal approach.

This year, three prizes will be awarded:

- 1) A Scientific Prize - CHF 3000.-, to reward a scientific work (clinical study, review of scientific literature) on the theme of the contest.
- 2) A Special Jury Prize - CHF 2000.-, to reward a more personal work (dissertation, case study, reflexion paper...) on the same theme.
- 3) A « Culture, Care and Spirituality » Prize - CHF 2000.-, to reward a scientific work or a reflection paper on the theme of the contest associated with a cultural dimension (eg. a study on a specific culture, a cross-cultural comparison, or a culture-specific treatment).

1.2 The main purpose of the Prize is to encourage reflection in the field of human, social and theological sciences on spirituality in care. It rewards the excellent quality of original works that are in principle unpublished.

1.3 A Scientific Committee is responsible for selecting the candidates. The candidates have to prepare an application package for the consideration of the Scientific Committee. The application package consists of the written work and a completed application form.

1.4 Prizes shall be awarded, in principle, within three months of the deadline for submission of applications. Amounts are divided in the case of a tie in one of the categories.

2. Formal Criteria

A Jean-Marc Fischer Prize can be awarded to any candidate who meets the following formal criteria:

2.1 The candidate, practitioner or academic, must have written a clinical, theoretical or historical work on the theme of spirituality in care.

This text cannot exceed 42,000 characters.

2.2 The article must be unpublished. However, a publication in the year preceding the award of the prize is accepted.

2.3 The authors of the work authorize the Doctor Jean-Marc Fischer Foundation to disseminate and / or publish their work on its website: www.fondationdocteurjmf.com . If an author wishes to publish his / her work in a journal, he / she will inform the Foundation.

3. The Scientific Committee of the Jean-Marc Fischer Prize

3.1 The Scientific Committee of the Jean-Marc Fischer Prize is composed of a Chairman and five members.

3.2 The members of the Scientific Committee are chosen by the Board of the Jean-Marc Fischer Foundation and work closely with it.

3.3 The Committee receives administrative support from the Foundation Board through a secretariat. The latter ensures the smooth running of the prize.

4. Powers of the Scientific Committee

4.1 The Scientific Committee is solely responsible for the award of the Jean-Marc Fischer Prize

4.2 The decision of the Scientific Committee shall not be subject to appeal.
